- P. Once the applicant successfully achieves a passing score on the civil service written entrance examination, the applicant must then successfully pass each of the following phases:

PHYSICAL FITNESS

Applicants are required to pass a fitness evaluation (physical agility course), which will be conducted after he/she successfully passes the entrance examination. The evaluation is to determine physical agility and duty fitness for Fire Service duties.

COMPLETE BACKGROUND INVESTIGATION

An extensive check of the applicant's personal/work/criminal history will be performed by a Laredo Fire Department designee. All of the information pertaining to the candidate will be considered by a hiring committee which will determine if the candidate should be disqualified.

POLYGRAPH EXAMINATION

All applicants are required to submit to a polygraph examination and demonstrate their veracity in responses to all personal history, employment, criminal activity, and personal habit interrogatories presented in the Polygraph Questionnaire. Satisfactory demonstration of this requirement will be based on a polygraph examiner's report of "No Deception Indicated." The following guidelines shall apply to the manner of testing:

- a. Each applicant is required to complete an approved "Pre-Employment Polygraph Questionnaire" prior to undergoing the examination.
- b. The polygraph examination has the sole purpose of verifying the applicant's truthfulness in the responses provided in the approved questionnaire.
- c. Current or former law enforcement, corrections, or security officers are required to respond to additional questions relating to their conduct as a law enforcement, corrections, or security officer.
- d. Polygraph examinations are conducted by a licensed polygraph examiner.
- e. Applicants whose original polygraph results are found to be other than "No Deception Indicated" are re-examined within thirty (30) days if desired and at the expense of the candidate. In order to appeal, the applicant must submit a written notice of appeal addressed to the City of Laredo Fire Chief within five (5) calendar days of notification of disqualification.
- f. Subsequent polygraph examinations are conducted by a different polygraph examiner, to be determined by the Laredo Fire Department hiring committee.
- g. All candidates whose results are found to be other than "No Deception Indicated" and refuse to take the polygraph re-test will be disqualified.
- h. If after the re-test of the polygraph the results are found to be other than "No Deception Indicated" the results will be considered in conjunction with all other information pertinent to the candidate. The hiring committee will decide based on this information whether the candidate will be disqualified or continue with the hiring process.

- i. If after the re-test of the polygraph the results are “No Deception Indicated” the results of the re-test will be accepted.

PSYCHOLOGICAL EXAMINATION

All applicants are required to undergo a psychological examination administered by a licensed police psychologist who is licensed by the Texas State Board of Examiners of Psychologists or by a psychiatrist licensed by the Texas Medical Board selected by the Laredo Fire Department to determine mental/emotional fitness for duty. The psychological examination must be conducted pursuant to professionally recognized standards and methods. The examination process must consist of a review of a job description for the position sought; review of any personal history statements; review of any background documents; at least two instruments, on which measures personality traits and one which measures psychopathology; and a face to face interview conducted after the instruments have been scored. Any applicant who is not deemed fit after this examination, must wait a minimum period of one (1) year from the date of disqualification before becoming eligible to reapply or as otherwise indicated by the psychologist.

Appeals for the Psychological Examination are required to meet the same standards as outlined above. Review of personal history statements, background documents and the use of at least two instruments, on which measures personality traits and one which measures psychopathology. The results of the original psychological examination will be forwarded to the examiner for review prior to the re-examination.

In order to appeal, the applicant must submit a written notice of appeal addressed to the Director of the Fire Fighters’ and Police Officers’ Civil Service Commission of the City of Laredo, Texas within ten (10) calendar days of notification of disqualification.

ORAL BOARD AND EVALUATION DAY INTERVIEW PROCESS

All applicants are required to participate in an oral assessment conducted by an oral interview board comprised of Fire Service Officers and Training Staff from the Laredo Fire Department. The Oral interview is a continual process as information becomes available. Applicants must demonstrate the ability to effectively communicate during the interview process requiring the applicant to respond to queries related to his/her background, investigation findings, as well as his/her responses to hypothetical scenarios and related issues.

All applicants are required to participate in an Evaluation Day as part of the interview process. The Evaluation Day is a series of events that are designed to test the participant for both mental and physical fitness for the Fire Service. A team of Fire Service personnel will assess, evaluate, and award a graded score for their individual performance.

The overall score in the Evaluation portion of the interview process will determine if the candidate successfully passed or failed the interview process.

MEDICAL EXAM

All applicants are then required to submit to a medical evaluation conducted by a Texas Medical Board licensed physician selected by the Laredo Fire Department. The physician must be familiar with the duties appropriate to the type of license sought. The individual must be declared by the physician to be physically sound and free from any defect which may adversely affect the performance of duty appropriate to the type of license sought and show no trace of drug dependency or illegal drug use. The physician will determine the applicant's medical fitness for duty.

Upon an applicant's successful completion of all of the aforementioned phases, he/she may be made a "conditional offer" of employment.

MANDATORY ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The applicant acknowledges, as a condition of employment, that he/she must successfully pass during the academy all City of Laredo Fire Department written and practical exercise exams.

The applicant also acknowledges, as a condition of employment, that during the academy the applicant will be tested, must pass, and be Texas state certified in the following:
